

To Whom It May Concern:

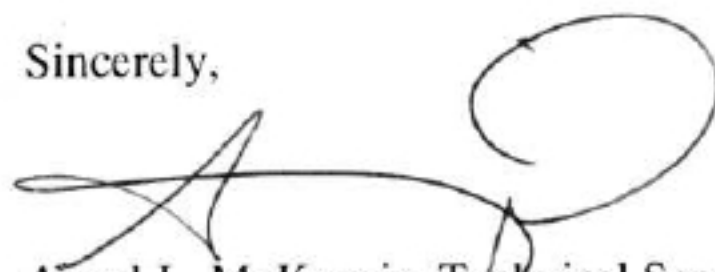

I am very pleased to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Elias Gil. Mr. Gil worked under my direct supervision from June 2011 until January 2012. During this time that Mr. Gil worked for me his work ethic and work skill was exceptional.

While working for me Mr. Gil was a training manager that was responsible for computer based training content development for new employees. Because of his abilities the training program was greatly enhanced. His expertise brought computer based training content that engaged our new employees while at the same time made them knowledgeable about their new job.

His work ethic proved to be outstanding as everyday he brought a new and better way in which we could instruct. In addition, his skillful knowledge of programs such as Adobe Captivate, Adobe Flash, Adobe Creative Suite, and SharePoint proved to be unparalleled.

Any organization/company would be fortunate to have Mr. Gil on their team.

Sincerely,
